Chapter Award Descriptions

All nominations must be submitted via the Award Nomination form. Navy and Gray EoE status is not required in order to be nominated for an award, although your grade will be considered.

When writing your nominations, include tangibles or examples of how your chapter has personified that particular award. The same goes for the individual nominations. Thinking about the specific examples could help with better understanding what is written in your nomination.

Chapter of the Year

This award is designed to recognize the chapters that have demonstrated excellence in all endeavors and represent the highest qualities of fraternity and sorority life as related to the shared pillars of citizenship, leadership and scholarship. This chapter has gone above and beyond to exemplify the values that we encourage as a community and does so with sincere compassion for the greater good.

Nominations for Chapter of the Year should be 500-750 words long.

Excellence in Academic Achievement

We support the academic vision and mission of the university and fully engage in the relationship between academic and co-curricular activities. It is our goal to encourage scholastic standards and policies to support our members in their academic success so that they can lead successful lives in which they contribute to both their fields of interest and broader society in a positive way. This award is designed to recognize high GPA achieving chapters and chapters that have help programming specific for academics within their general members and/or new member education process.

Nominations for Excellence in Academic Achievement should be 300-500 words long.

Excellence in Member Development

We are committed to the growth and development of our members by ensuring that our programming efforts reflect individual needs throughout their entire membership in the chapter and aim to foster new members that will have a positive impact on our community. Your new member education program should not only prepares individuals for active membership in the chapter, but also in the fraternity/sorority community and beyond. This award is designed to recognize chapters who have focused on programming or efforts to further the development of their members by educating on an array of subjects that also have importance outside of the fraternity & sorority community.

Nominations for Excellence in Member Development should be 300-500 words long.

Excellence in Recruitment & Retention

Community members should recruit with the intentions of building a sustainable chapter of members who share similar principles and reflect the values of their fraternity/sorority. In order to ensure the future success of their organization, we ensure that members are prepared to take on the responsibilities that come with upholding our membership and values. Chapters are conscious of their size and their intake frequency in order to meet the requirements set by our inter/national organization, our local council, and the university. This award is designed to recognize chapters that have put intentional and conscious effort into their recruitment while focusing on the overall growth of their organization regardless of new member count.

Nominations for Excellence in Recruitment & Retention should be 300-500 words long.

Excellence in Chapter Operations

Chapters effectively and productively run all chapter meetings, programs, and events. They maintain productive relationships with our on-campus advisor, CFSD coach, and alumni advisor that help chapter operations run more smoothly. They have policies and/or practices in place to ensure a thorough transition of officers, and maintain an updated constitution and/or bylaws. Chapter creates a budget and calendar that is aligned with their values. They improve chapter operations to provide a positive experience for our members. The strength of their operations were shown as we shifted from in-person to a virtual experience and now to a new hybrid model that brings the two together. This award recognizes chapters that have implemented specific practices that allow them to better operate as organization whether that be for meetings, programs, and or events.

Nominations for Chapter Operations should be 300-500 words long.

Excellence in Community Impact

Chapters support and provide opportunities for their members to be global citizens who excel in addressing the challenges of the local, national, and international communities through philanthropic and service initiatives. Not only do we encourage our members' involvement in university-sponsored outreach programs, but we also strive to support our own beneficiaries and national philanthropies. From the UConn Academic Vision: "Through outreach and partnerships, we promote sustainable development and a happy, healthy, and inclusive society. This engagement is local and global, based on intercultural understanding and recognition of the transnational nature of the challenges and opportunities we face." This awards recognizes chapters that embody the quote above through innovative and unique philanthropic and service initiatives.

Nominations for the Community Impact should be 300-500 words long.

Excellence in Diversity & Inclusion

Chapter shows a strong commitment to diversity and inclusion throughout all chapter operations. They create a space where their members can feel comfortable expressing their own identity while exploring others. Their members encourage a culture of civility and respect and continuously make an effort to raise awareness on important issues and movements that impact people of color and marginalized groups. This awards recognizes chapters that make it a goal not only to educate themselves and others through their programming and events, but to also take action and aid the community in becoming more inclusive and culturally aware.

Nominations for Diversity & Inclusion should be 300-500 words long.
